

Jacopo

Italy

Jacopo is a 16-year-old boy who lives with his Mum, Dad and an older sister whom he is close to. He describes himself as solar, curious, positive and open-minded. He is also altruistic and sociable but sometimes stubborn. His good friend says he is funny, friendly and always smiling. He loves spending time with his family as well as playing sports and being outdoors.

While on Exchange

Jacopo hopes to be more self-confident, independent and responsible. He also wants to test himself and see how he copes with different types of situations. He would love to be place in a family with pets and siblings.

Sports & Activities

Jacopo played rugby for 8 years and stopped playing but would like to re-start. He enjoys being a scout as well. He started calisthenics recently and likes to continue.
